NO. 131, CHELTENHAM

Behind its handsome façade, this Grade II Georgian villa is rather cooler than it might first appear. Step inside and you'll discover a chic boutique hotel, restaurant and late-night DJ bar infused with slick, contemporary art.

Groups can commandeer one of three private dining rooms or the whole restaurant, with menus tailored to your party's needs. Opt for showpiece sharing dishes such as the Jospier-grilled 19oz aberdeen angus chateaubriand, or beef wellington with fries, béarnaise sauce and rocket salad. Still feeling energetic? Head into the Crazy Eights bar for music and vintage cocktails (until 1am). For the ultimate end to your evening, book one of the 11 individually designed bedrooms (doubles from £150 b&b).
